

the Pulitzer Center on Crisis Reporting presents:

DOWNSTREAM

Untold stories on water, sanitation and population

featuring:

CHATTAHOOCHEE

From Water War to Water Vision // USA, 2010, 8 min. excerpt

DHAKA'S CHALLENGE

A Megacity Struggles With Water and Sanitation // Bangladesh, 2011, 7 min.

DONGTING HU

A Lake in Flux // China, 2011, 5 min.

WATER SCARCITY ON THE INDUS RIVER

India and Pakistan, 2010, 7 min.

The Pulitzer Center on Crisis Reporting presents films on water and population to mark World Water Day // Discussion with Katherine Bliss, Director of the Global Water Policy Project at the Center for Strategic and International Studies and filmmakers Stephen Sapienza, Rhett Turner, Jonathan Wickham and Fred de Sam Lazaro follows screening // Moderated by Pulitzer Center Executive Director Jon Sawyer

CARNEGIE INSTITUTION FOR SCIENCE

1530 P St., NW // Metro: Dupont Circle
Monday, March 21, 6:00 PM
RSVP: DCEFF-pulitzer.eventbrite.com

Reception to follow

DC ENVIRONMENTAL FILM FESTIVAL

