

Please join the Chicago Council on Global Affairs for a breakfast discussion

The First 1,000 Days: Nutrition and Food Security

Please join veteran journalist and author, Roger Thurow, for an armchair discussion of his observations and experiences with mothers and small-scale farmers in developing countries. Mr. Thurow recorded the struggles of small-scale farmers in Africa in his last book, The Last Hunger Season. His newest book, The First 1,000 Days, vividly chronicles four mothers and their babies in India, Uganda, Guatemala, and Chicago on their journey to provide the proper nutrition to ensure their children may survive and thrive.

Time and Location

May 17th, 2016

9:00am – 11:00am

George Washington University

Elliot School for International Affairs

City View Room, 7th Floor

1957 E St. NW, Washington, DC 20036

Speakers

Nancy Stetson, Special Representative for Global Food Security, US Department of State (invited)

Roger Thurow, Senior Fellow, Chicago Council on Global Affairs

Bonnie McClafferty, Director, Agriculture & Nutrition, GAIN

Please RSVP to Grace Burton, gburton@thechicagocouncil.org or call 202.416.4019

Partners

 ONE ACRE FUND

HarvestPlus
Better Crops • Better Nutrition

1,000
DAYS

 Pulitzer Center

 Save the Children®