

Here are our schools Habits of mind:

- Persevere to learn from academic and real-world challenges
- Innovate creative methods and approaches
- Apply existing understanding to novel situations
- Communicate with clarity and precision
- Advocate for self and others

Explain which habit of mind you embraced during this process and how.

Journalism, Justice, and UDHR Reflection

What to do:

Reflect on this unit's essential questions & the process of taking action in your community by answering the following questions.

1. What is the role of journalism in ensuring justice in society? How did you use journalism in the design thinking process?
2. In what ways has the Universal Declaration of Human Rights been violated in the world and our community?
3. How do individuals and groups uphold the Universal Declaration of Human Rights in the world and our community?
4. Reflect on the process of taking action: What are you most proud of?
5. Reflect on the process of taking action: What would you do differently in the future?
6. What did you learn about yourself and your community in the process?
1. Share photos of the actions you took below. Share links to any products you created below: