

Rubric: Action Project

Content Objectives

	3	2	1
Task Completion	All aspects of the chosen project are complete.	The project is somewhat complete.	The project is not complete.
Clarity	The community problem or issue is clearly defined and is supported by external data or detailed personal experience.	The community problem or issue is somewhat clearly defined. It is somewhat supported by data or personal experience.	The community problem or issue is not clearly defined. It appears to be based on individual opinion, rather than on data.
Action	The action step was focused with a clear voice and goal. The intended audience was clear.	The action step was somewhat focused, but lacked clarity about its goal or audience.	The action step lacked significant clarity in terms of goal or audience OR was not defined or identifiable.

Language Objectives

	3	2	1
Language Control	The project demonstrates consistent control of practiced structures and tenses with few errors. There is strong organization and use of transition words when needed.	The project demonstrates good control of practiced structures and tenses with typical errors. There is evidence of some organization and transitions.	The project demonstrates limited control of practiced structures and tenses. There is limited organization and transitions.
Vocabulary	There is rich and robust use of a wide variety of vocabulary appropriate for the proficiency level.	There is some variety of vocabulary appropriate for the proficiency level.	The vocabulary is inadequate and/or repetitive for the appropriate proficiency level.
Mechanics	There are few to no mechanical errors.	There are several mechanical errors.	There are many mechanical errors.

