

Untold Stories Proposal Project

By: Madison C

What Is Depression?

Depression is a feeling people go through when they feel unwelcomed, not necessary to the world, unwanted, etc. It is important because nobody should go through depression.

What Is An Underreported Story?

An underreported story is stories that are barely talked about. An example of an underreported story is Minnijean Brown's place in history as one of the " Little Rock Nine". This is an underreported story because people don't know nor talk about this story. They don't talk about this story because they think it's unnecessary, since it's in the past.

An Underreported Story We Need To Study

An underreported story we need to study is depression. For example, in an article, I read depression can lead to suicide. This shows that we need to study about depression because we could help people from committing suicide. Additionally, in a podcast, I heard depression can lead to drugs, alcohol, and doing illegal thing. This shows that we need to study about depression because depression has so many negative effects on people's lives and mindsets,

What Is The Best Method Of Sharing My Story With A The Largest Audience?

The best method of sharing this story is youtube. For example, youtube has over 1 millions users, each that like learning new things. The shows that youtube is the best way of sharing this story because youtube informs the most people about depression.