

Lesson 1: Chart Paper Activity Student Work Examples

1. When I think of Gun incarcerated people I think of...

People who commit crimes
 People in the Prison system
 Orange suits
 Gun struggling people
 bad people
 People who are in jail
 Bad people in hands of gov for a crime committed
 People who are very good people
 People who have done something against the law
 Criminals.
 People who make mistakes but want a second chance in life.

Gun Gun Gun Gun Gun Gun Gun Gun Gun Gun

2. My definition of justice is...

U.S. People
 Correct action people have to put
 Punishment for actions
 Amends made based on unjust actions performed.
 Correct action for everyone
 People who are wronged by our system get compensated
 doing the right thing nicely
 equal rights
 Revenge
 Treating the guilty how they treated their victims
 Bad actions = jail
 People get what's coming
 Getting what you deserve

YOU GET WHAT YOU DESERVE

3. In order to decrease crime, society needs to... be more strict.

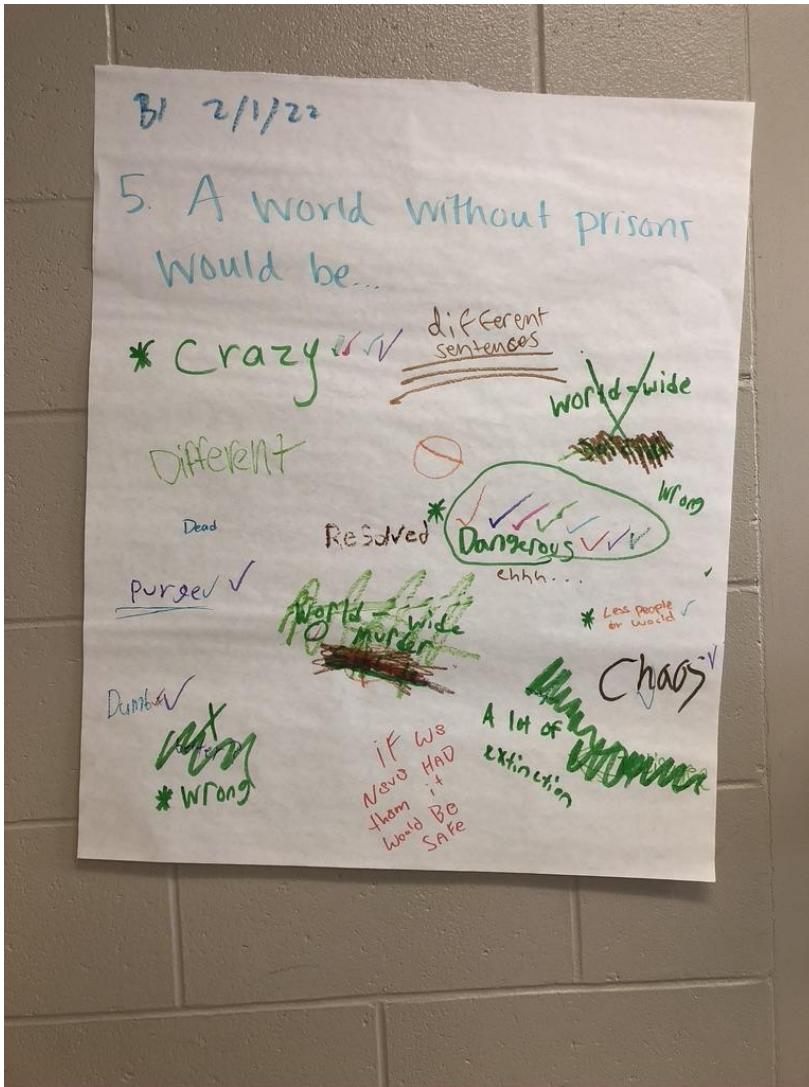

Increase the consequence
 YES!
 More severe consequences
 Make the rules clearer
 Increase consequences for crime to be better society needs to be better

Give more funding to schools
 Prevent crime committers before they commit the crime...
 More laws
 More punishments!
 People need to change in order for the crime rate to decrease in our society.

Death
 Mental condition
 Drugs
 Hungry
 Desperation
 Blackmail
 They are raggedy
 They need money
 They need money? they need money? they need money?
 Success
 They need their needs more than sin/rebel.
 Heartless.

4. People commit crimes because...

There bad people
 Psychopath
 sociopath
 Mental condition
 Govt not do well help them
 Drugs
 Hungry
 Desperation
 Death
 Blackmail
 They are raggedy
 They need money
 They need money?
 Success
 They need their needs more than sin/rebel.
 Heartless.

Some student reflections on what a world without prisons would be from the first day of our unit. Responses include; "Crazy, dangerous, chaos, wrong, terrible, no justice."

