Cultivating Hope and Pride with Raya Savage

Raya has lots of opinions.
She opens eyes.
Without Raya, I'd be a
totally different person.
I'm way more
open-minded.

I've always believed
in God.

Raya always has been open.
She's open to change.

Islam is really cool
because of the peacefulness.

She is a true trailblazer!

Outgoing. Positive.
Raya brings us all together
and helps us view things differently.

We're like family.

She speaks up
when she needs to.

I hope Raya finds her true passion and succeeds. She's an amazing and thoughtful person. She truly cares about others and doing the right thing.

I hope she continues
to find what she really
loves to do
even if her family
doesn't accept it.

I hope she finds
someone who understands.

Fadumo is sweet
and caring.
The first time we
meet she hugged
and kissed me.
She puts my heart at ease.

I want to get in a better place
with myself and help my parents grow as well.
I hope they can be more
open-minded.

These are the people I want to be around.
No matter what they
will understand.

I want Raya to know much I love, admire & respect her. She completely changed her entire world at such a young age. I think she's such a role model. Don't let others hold you back or tell you that you can't do something or be whatever you want to be.

Miss Raya is a source of light and
inspiration.
I know that her future
will be filled with success; moreover, the world will most
definitely be a whole
lot better because she is a change agent who
will fight for justice.
