

Questions for Imran Mohammad Fazal Hoque (see his bio by pressing the link on his name).

1. What positivity could one be looking forward to, in a place filled with so much negativity and pain while in an immigration prison?

2. Would you say that your imagination was one of the biggest things that helped you persevere throughout your fight?

3. How do you feel every time you share your story with a person?

4. Do you feel as though you've acquired the knowledge to comprehend why you were put through the hardships?

5. What would be something you would tell your past self, with all the knowledge you have now?