Brain POP

Research Quiz

Name: _____
Date: _____
Class: _____

1. The scope of a research project depends most on the project's:

a. Introduction
b. Sources
c. Size
d. Final grade

2. Compared to main research, pre-search is generally:

a. More focused
b. Narrower
c. More relevant
d. Broader

3. "What was World War I?" is not an ideal research question because:

a. It's not relevant to the topic
b. There aren't many sources on the topic
c. It's too difficult to answer
d. It's not specific enough

4. Sub-questions are like _____ on the way to answering the main research question.

a. Detours
b. Stepping stones
c. Roadblocks
d. Dead ends

5. The following are examples of sources, except:

a. A written letter
b. An interview
c. A table of contents
d. A photograph

6. The statement "Research is not a straight line" means:

a. Research can go in unexpected directions
b. Pre-search happens after research
c. Sub-questions cannot be changed
d. Research never ends

7. In addition to online research, library research is recommended because:

a. Only libraries provide Internet access
b. Not all sources can be found online
c. Librarians do not use the Internet for research
d. Books are better resources than online articles

8. What part of a book is most helpful for locating information relevant to your research?

a. Introduction
b. Author's note
c. Index
d. Bibliography

9. This note is an example of a(n):

a. Paraphrase
b. Direct quote
c. Summary of opinions
d. Original idea

10. A bibliography is a list of _____ used in a research project.

a. Search terms
b. Research questions
c. Sub-questions
d. Sources