

Questions

Isabella

- 1) how did you initially deal with the passing?
- 2) what are some things done to raise awareness?
- 3) do you think you'd be a part of this group without the loss of your loved one?
- 4) how long did it take to start moving past the grief?
- 5) how would you help someone dealing with that situation the loss of a loved one?
- 6) what do you think some of the causes for this violence might be?

7)

Questions

10/1/20

2/1/21 2021

- I How do you plan on actually pursuing to stop gun violence?
- II Do you think that each death could be linked to another, meaning that people who know who did the deed?
- III Is it the lack of employment/money that's causing people to be easily frustrated?
- IV Are they still trapped in the past?
- V Could they be killing for fun?
- VI Could it be the lack of a better remedy?
- 7 Is it the fact that were tired of being treated like we were not apart of society?
- 8 Is it the drug abuse/alcohol?
- 9 The negativity that social media causes?
10. The toxic women that likes the men that kill?

Maryah
2-6-23

Do you feel like the police isn't taking your son's death
Serious enough? tryna find who did this?

How do you feel that your son's case haven't been solved or the murder hasn't been found.

IF you could have the chance to be face to face w/ your son's killer what would you say?

How often do you think about what happened to your son?

Since your son's passing do you have problems eating or sleeping?

IF you could have the chance to speak to the mother of the child that murder your son, would you speak to her if you what will you say?

Do you still celebrate your son's birthday?

Questions

Isabella

- 1) how did you initially deal with the passing?
- 2) what are some things close to raise awareness?
- 3) do you think you'd be a part of this group without the loss of your loved one?
- 4) how long did it take to start moving past the grief?
- 5) how would you help someone dealing with that situation/ the loss of a loved one?
- 6) what do you think some of the causes for this violence might be?
- 1)

Questions

Keiron

2/6/22 4HR

- I How do yall plan on actually persuing to stop gun violence?
- II Do you think that each death could be linked to another, meaning that people who know who did the deed?
- III Is it the lack of employment/money that's causing people to be easily frustrated?
- IV Are they still trapped in the past?
- V Could they be killing for fun?
- VI Could it be the lack of a fatherly role model?
7. Is it the fact that were tired of being treated like were not apart of society?
8. Is it the drug abuse/alcohol?
9. The negativity that social media causes?
10. The toxic women that likes ~~be~~ men that kill?