

Interview

By: Aaliyah S

About Them

I interviewed my friend's older brother. His name is Manny and i've known him since 2020. He is Ciudad Juárez, Chihuahua. It's a city in Mexico. He has been in the U.S since he was 13, he is now 21 about to be 22. He has overcome the difficulties into coming here and has risen above them. He is very smart and has a bright future ahead of him.

Questions

1. Where are you from?
2. Was was the difficult parts of getting into the U.S?
3. How did you feel about the language barrier?
4. Do you miss being there?
5. If you're able to, would you go back to visit?

The Interview

Answers

Where Is He From?

He is from Juarez, Chihuahua.

This is a city in Mexico just south of El Paso. As of right now, there is a population of about 1.3 million people.

Difficulties Of Coming Into The U.S

He had to use a different name to cross over the border and understanding the english language and communicating with others were the difficult parts about coming into the U.S. They came into New Mexico.

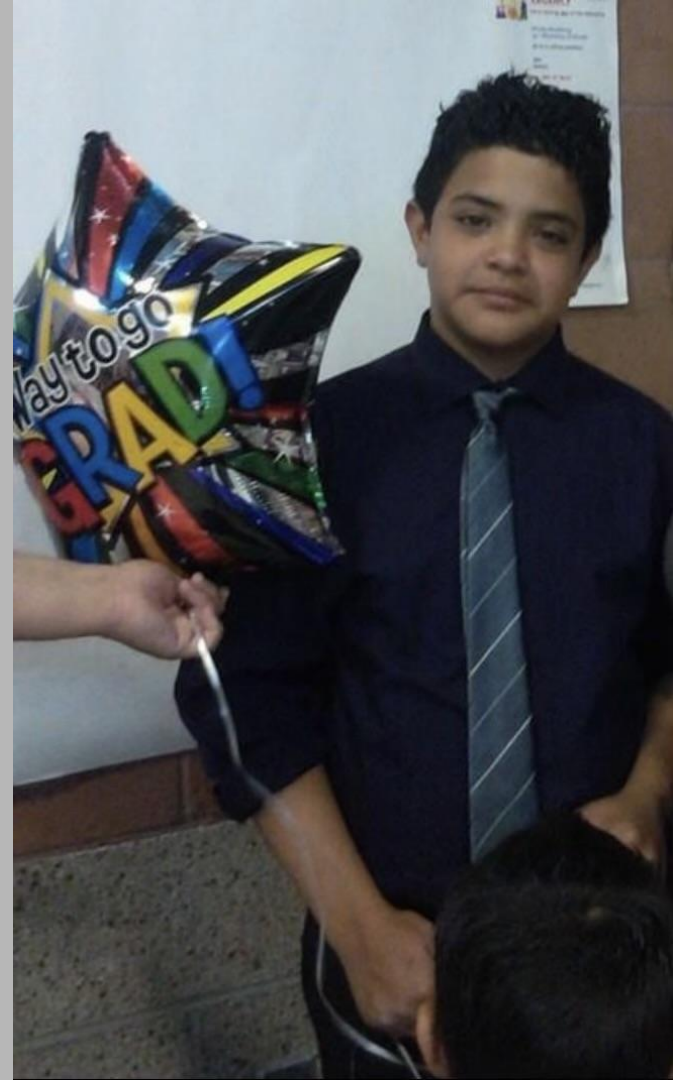

How He Felt About The Language Barrier

He felt it was difficult and very frustrating but he never gave up and kept on learning and now he is very good at it.

Does He Miss Being There And If He Could Go Back Would He?

He does miss being in Mexico. And if he had the opportunity he would love to go back so he can see his family because he misses them very much.

The End