Haiti is a part of an island.

Haiti is a proud
nation, rich, in
heritage and
spirituality how they have been able to survive but not also came together to
rebuild homes for
each others.

Haiti also remained the poorest
country.

Why did Haiti go
broke? France only
recognized an independent Haiti in 1825 after its former
colony agreed to pay reparations.

Haiti was the first
independent
black republic
in the world.
