

Project Rubric

KEY TRAITS

3

2

Creativity and originality

The writing demonstrates a strong sense of creativity and originality, using unique ideas and themes. Makes reference to local and global connections.

The writing demonstrates some creativity and originality, using unique ideas and themes. Makes loose reference to local and global connections.

Structure and organization

The essay demonstrates a clear understanding of structure and organization.

The essay demonstrates some structure and organization.

Language and style

The story shows a strong command of language and style, including descriptive language to create vivid imagery.

There is an attempt of language and style, including descriptive language to create vivid imagery.

Overall impression on reader

The writer makes a strong impression, leaving the reader engaged and impressed with the author's storytelling skills.

The writer makes an impression, leaving the reader somewhat curious about the material and the connection.