

How many Americans will live below the poverty line and require public assistance at some point during their lifetime?

1 in 4

According to Kathy Edin's $2.00 a Day

Families make up how much of Forsyth
County's homeless population?

29%

According to Bob Campbell, Forsyth County Salvation Army

The average length of time a welfare recipient receives supplemental government aid is?

2.5 years

According to Sociologist Matthew Desmond

When Americans living below the poverty line collect food stamps, or S.N.A.P. benefits, their monthly stipend, broken down, equals how much per meal, per person?

$1.40

According to Sociologist Matthew Desmond

How many federally recognized Native American tribes are in the United States?

562

According to the Federal Bureau of Indian Affairs

How many images are uploaded on a daily basis worldwide?

1.8 billion

According to The Atlantic, 2015

Infant care in North Carolina costs more per year than a year of in-state tuition for a 4-year public college.

True

According to the Economic Policy Newswire

What percent of U.S. pre-K through 12th grade students are eligible for free or reduced lunch prices?

51%

According to the Kairos Foundation

What percent of students in Winston-Salem are eligible for free or reduced lunch prices?

71.2%

According to StartClass

How might experiencing poverty influence how a person defines his/her/their identity?

What aspect defines you most in terms of identity?

This is subjective, and one of life's big questions.