

Free and open to the public but RSVP at <http://dceff-pulitzercenter.eventbrite.com>

NATURAL RESOURCES/ UNNATURAL RESULTS:

6 PM, MARCH 21

Carnegie Institution for Science
Elihu Root Auditorium
1530 P Street NW
Washington, DC

The Pulitzer Center on Crisis Reporting presents five short films examining the impact of natural resources extraction on the environment, indigenous populations, public health and corporate responsibility.

Discussion follows screenings, with filmmakers Stephen Sapienza and Nadja Drost, and Amol Mehra, Coordinator of the International Corporate Accountability Roundtable, and Daniel Baer, Deputy Assistant Secretary, US State Department Bureau of Democracy, Human Rights, and Labor. Moderated by Jon Sawyer, Executive Director, Pulitzer Center on Crisis Reporting.

Reception follows program

FEATURING

PERU'S GOLD RUSH: WEALTH AND WOES
(Peru, 2011, 9 min.) by Stephen Sapienza

GUERRILLA MINING IN GUIANA'S MIDST
(French Guiana, 2011, 5 min.) by Narayan Mahon

THE DARK SIDE OF COLOMBIA'S GOLD RUSH
(Colombia, 2011, 4 min.) by Nadja Drost

GHANA: OIL BOOM, FISHING FEARS
(Ghana, 2011, 4 min.) by Christiane Badgley

THE PENAN OF BORNEO
(Malaysia, 2011, 4 min.) by James
Whitlow Delano