

Geographic Case Study Using Pulitzer Center Resources

Title of article	Author	Date published
------------------	--------	----------------

Case Study Topic:

Refer to guiding questions on the back for your 4 P Analysis.

Place *   *   	Processes    *   *   *
Power *   *   *   	Possibilities    *   *   *

Place WHERE is this event occurring? In what continent or region of the world does this place exist? Where is the location of this place in regards to other places? What other countries/cities are located in this part of the world?	Processes WHAT is happening? Provide multiple, critical details on the events that are occurring in this place. These details will help us understand what is going on in this place!
Power WHO is involved (or not involved) with what is happening? Why are these people involved in what is happening? Who is NOT involved in what is happening? Why not? Who is impacted and not impacted by what is happening? Who has a voice in what is happening? Who doesn't? Why? Are the impacts of the actions felt equally by everyone involved? Why or why not?	Possibilities What might happen next here? Who will be involved with what may happen next? Why? Are there solutions to this issue? What are they? How might this process, or what is happening, change the future? If _____ happens, what will be the result? Or If _____ happens what will be that result? Can this place and/or people adapt to what is happening? Are proposed or potential solutions sustainable? Will this place and/or individuals or groups impacted by what is happening, be able to be resilient in the face of change?

Reflect and Extend: What new understanding or realization do you have after reading the article? What questions do you have that go unanswered in the article? What do you want to ask the author?