

Stories of Migration

This project will give you perspective of a conflict or event that involves migration. In the end, you will create a sample of a book that will highlight the conflict or event.

Skills Practiced

- Integrate information from diverse sources into a coherent understanding of an event
- Introduce a topic and organize ideas, concepts, and information to make important connections
- Generate original ideas and products in imaginative ways

Steps

1. Illustrate to describe the conflict in Ukraine
2. Empathy Map of your chosen conflict or event
3. Development of a book sample to engage a reader in your chosen conflict or event

Rubric

	3	4	5
Creating a front cover to highlight a conflict	May use researched concepts to develop a cover and title that is somewhat related to the topic or event.	Use researched concepts to develop a cover and title is relevant to the topic or event.	Uses researched concepts to develop a cover and title that can be significantly and creatively related to the topic and event.
Writing the final page to say how the story should end	Writes a final page of the book that demonstrates little vision for how the topic or event may end.	Writes a final page of the book that demonstrates a basic vision for how the topic or event may end.	Writes a final page of the book that demonstrates a creative vision for how the topic or event may end.
Summarizing the conflict on the back cover	Writes a surface or simple summary of the topic or event that communicates information in a manner that might hold reader's attention.	Writes a complete, yet general summary of the topic or event that communicates information in a manner to interest the reader.	Writes a comprehensive and very detailed summary of the topic or event that communicates information in a compelling manner to engage the reader.

Highlight how you think you did in each category

