

Final Reflection

1. In your own words, what is slavery?
2. How were blacks treated during slavery in America? Provide any examples you can remember.
3. What did white Americans want freed blacks to do after the war? What really happened?
4. Describe how life was like after Black Americans gained their freedom.
5. What can we do to combat racism in our everyday life?
6. Are there any additional questions you would still like to explore?	