

Everyday DC 2020: Moods and Vibes

These images were curated by students from Hardy Middle School and placed on the same wall at the Pepco Edison Place Gallery as part of the Fourth Annual Everyday DC exhibition

Guiding Questions from the Student Curators

As you view this gallery, the curators ask you keep these questions in mind.

- What photos stand out to you?
- What stories do they tell?
- What do you learn about this community?
- How do these photos change your perceptions of Washington, D.C.?

Makenzie Tidwell

Hardy Hawks Spread
Their Wings and Fly!

Hardy Middle School

Sanaa Young

Don't Judge a Book By its Cover

Neziya, we call her Nazzzy, looks at the camera on the rocket ship at the Excel Academy playground. Sometimes people imagine D.C. as rough, but this photo shows that she is happy in life.

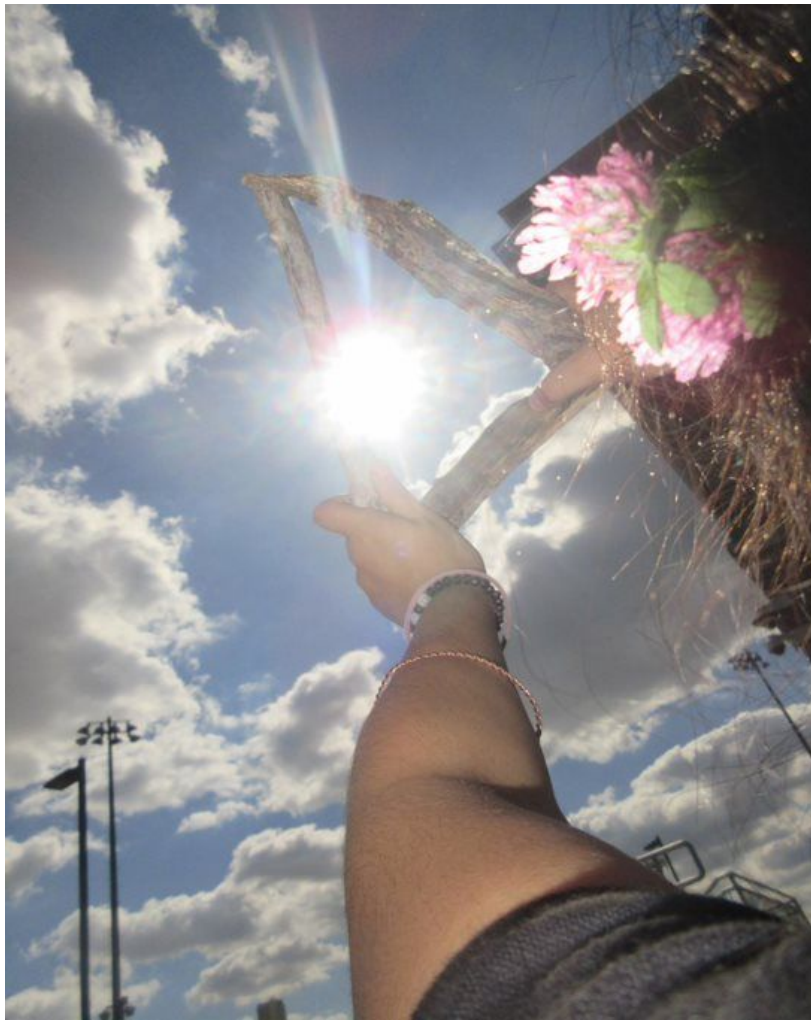

Excel Academy Public
Charter School

Dilcia Liset Benitez

Enjoying the Sunlight

Brightwood Education
Campus

Gustavo Rosas

Angels From Heaven

I don't care where I go after I die but I know it's going to be a long ride.

MacFarland Middle School

Jorhlenny Arevalo

Color and Beauty

Dark and light colors will make our world more beautiful.

Oyster-Adams Bilingual School

Sydney McDuffie

Untitled

Happy sisters have each others back.

Hardy Middle School

Aime Tevez Campos

La espera

Mostramos al mundo lo que está mal y le enseñamos a seguir un compás.

MacFarland Middle School