All started when we had to stay in quarantine, because of the covid-19. Everyone had to stay at home, and take cautions to be healthing, without getting sick. Students had to adapt to online classes, and they were not accustomed to that. Other people had to work from home, using their computers. At first it was hard, because people used to work, or study, in a specific place: School, office, etc. But everyone was getting accustomed little by little. Then, summer came. Almost nobody has summer vacations, caused by the pandemic (covid-19). The streets looked sad, almost empty, but houses were full of people. I’ve met some of my neighbors because of that. Now, I expect that everything will be back to normal.
This summer was not like any summer I’ve ever seen before. This summer passed very quickly for me. I just sat at home and did the tasks that teachers and parents gave me. But I also acquired the pluses, I have a new hobby, which I told briefly, I see my parents every day, it's not so hard for me and I have more free time, but the pluses that I have acquired have also minuses, for me every day is the same, especially in This month I was given the problem to complete a course of mathematics 2A in a month I was still very lucky because the month is soon ending and I will have time for everything. Oh yes, in the summer I did English so... nothing really changed for me. Communication with friends and my family prevents me from degradation, for which I am very grateful to them. And so I am writing this text with a translator and... I think what if in the future I will sit in the office and work at the computer like today, bend my back, drink energy so as not to sleep at night and for me it's scary. In short, for me the summer passed quickly, a little boring, sad and almost no different from today's for. My dad and mom are very positive, so when we have free time we are going to go somewhere to relax, sometimes with friends, sometimes alone. This summer, this year, all these events will be remembered by people for a long time.

This summer was not like any summer I've ever seen before. This summer wasn't like I expected because of everything that was happening around the world. I didn't spend my summer at home. I had to visit my sister. She lives in Virginia where in summer the weather is very hot, so all i could do was stay inside the house using my phone, eating and helping my sister with chores since she was pregnant. If i could describe my summer i would say it was the most boring summer i ever had. The only thing that I enjoyed was spending time with my nephew although it was for a short time because he was born when summer was coming to an end.
