

Viewing Guide for “The Education of T.M. Landry”

While you watch this episode of The Weekly, answer the following questions to track the journalists’ investigative reporting process.

How did the journalists identify their story?
What is one of the first things the journalists did after arriving in Louisiana?
What did the journalists do after returning to DC after their first visit to Louisiana?
What was the purpose of the journalists’ call with their editor, Jonathan Weisman?
In addition to conducting interviews, how do the journalists investigate abuse allegations?
After listening to students and their families, who did the journalists speak to, and why?
What do the journalists do after visiting the Landrys at their school?
What do the journalists do after their story is published in the New York Times ?	